INDEX TO VOLUME V.

PAGE.

American and Foreign Theatres.....Olive Logan..... 22
American Dining.....George E. Pond..... 256
Aphoristic Cynicisms.....Junius Henri Browne..... 122
A Problem.....Henry James, Jr...... 697
Apple Blossoms.....May Mather..... 761
A Trip to the Wyandotte Cave.....F. M. Gray..... 746
Ballad (The) of Sir Ball.....W. D. O'Connor..... 328
Beechdale—Chapters 1 to 5.....Marion Harland..... 581, 719
Before Genius.....John Burroughs..... 421
Black Bess (The).....Harriet Prescott Spofford..... 517
British Marriage Law and Practice.....Theresa Yelverton..... 197
Burgoyne in a New Light.....William L. Stone..... 78
Byronism.....Walter S. McCann..... 777
Camorra (The) of Naples.....G. W. Appleton..... 641
Case (A) of Mistaken Identity.....Edward Gould Buffum..... 188
Cassiterides (The).....W. L. Alden..... 500
Christmas (The Same) in Old England and New.....Edward Everett Hale..... 47
Clementina Kinniside.....E. Lynn Linton..... 549
Corner Stone (A).....Clarence Cook..... 144
Cruikshank (George).....Clarence Cook..... 126
Deserted Plantation (A).....E. B. Seabrook..... 308
Dinner (A).....Pierre Blot..... 173
DRIFT-WOOD.....Philip Quilibet..... 645, 782
Annual House-Swapping; New Hampshire Canvasses; The Alabama Claims; Books, Brains, and Bread; The Travelling Season; Who is our Sovereign; A Nation's Repentance and Faith: Churches and Amusements.

Eccentric Artist (An).....D. E. C...... 638
Elements of Physiology (Huxley's).....E. L. Youmans..... 656
Elder Knapp, the Revivalist.....George E. Pond..... 342
Elizabetta's Christmas.....Harriet Prescott Spofford..... 60
Faux-Pas of the Press.....James Grant Wilson..... 762
Fight (The) at Fisher's Hill.....James Franklin Fitts..... 427
Five Years in Japan.....D. B. Simmons..... 606
Forced Marches.....J. W. De Forest..... 708
Forest Fire (The).....Edward S. Ellis..... 774
From May till Martinmas.....Mrs. W. H. Palmer..... 455
General Washington's Negro Body-Servant.....Mark Twain..... 154
Grasses and Wild Flowers.....H. Malan..... 690
House and the Heart.....E. R. Sill..... 574
How Lamirande was Caught.....Gaston Fay..... 355
Jarocho Life.....Mayne Reid..... 681
John Bright at Home.....Richard J. Hinton..... 288
Lady Jacqueline.....Phœbe Cary..... 679
LITERATURE AND ART..... 652, 778
William Blake, by Richard Grant White; Huxley's Elements of Physiology, by E. L. Youmans; Art and Artists, by S. S. Conant; Women Writers and Mrs. Edwards, by Eugene Benson; Various Books, by Richard Grant White.

Legend (The) of St. Gwendoline.....Morgan Dix..... 258
London Docks.....N. S. Dodge..... 766
Love's Largess.....Helen Hunt..... 129
Lowlands (The) of the Mississippi.....Henry L. Abbot..... 445
Magazine Making.....The Editor..... 509
Manners (The) of the Day.....The Editor..... 376
Modern French Clubs.....George M. Towle..... 247

PAGE.

My Late Senatorial Secretaryship.....Mark Twain..... 633
My Note Book.....Anne M. Crane..... 733
My Spiritualistic Experiences.....Richard Frothingham..... 28
Native Wines and Native Games.....Pierre Blot..... 631
NEBULÆ.....The Editor..... 124, 255, 382, 513, 659, 797
Christmas—George Cruikshank—Sunday Laws—"On this Continent"—"Love's Largess"—Derivation of Slang—Punning—Charles Dickens—American Dining—The Legend of St. Gwendoline—Apathy of the American People—The Sinfulness of Sleep—A Ball and a Poem—The Story of Macbeth—Female Poppers—The Amount of our Reading—One Touch of Nature—Mines and Coinage—Honorary Degrees—Books and Publishers—A New Religion—A Case for Retaliation—A Woman's Word with Monsieur Blot—A Man's Word with Monsieur Blot—The Tyng Trial and its Moral—Wood Engraving—The Grande Duchesse—An Apt Application of Scripture—New York Names—Congressional Courtesies—Women 2,000 Years Ago—Artistic Imagination—Poetry at the Capitol—Women's Waists.
O. P. Riots (The) of 1809.....A. Bromley..... 636
Our Millionaires.....T. W..... 529
Our Railway Management.....Edward Howland..... 757
Parting in Hope.....Thomas Hitchcock..... 426
Personalism.....Walt Whitman..... 540
Pilgrimage (The) to Mecca.....Edna Dean Proctor..... 575
Political Outlook (The).....D. G. Croly..... 41
Popular Songs.....George Wakeman..... 157
Reminiscences of Dr. Wayland.....W. L. Stone..... 180
Secret History (The) of a Subsidized Organ.....Olive Logan..... 317
Semele.....E. R. Sill..... 374
Shadow (The) on the Wall..... 547
Sinfulness of Sleep.....Junius Henri Browne..... 259
Slaughtered (The) Frenchman.....Paul Asperge..... 472
Snow (The).....May Mather..... 172
Soldier Statesmen.....Thomas Jordan..... 565
Some Celebrated Shrews.....Frank W. Ballard..... 298
Some of our Actors.....O. B. Bunce..... 165
Southern Troubles and their Remedy.....James O. Noyes..... 365
Spring (1868) Exhibition National Academy.....S. S. Conant..... 657
Steven Lawrence, Yeoman—Chapter 32 to end.....Mrs. Edwards..... 86, 206, 261, 389, 618, 661
Story (The) of a Masterpiece.....Henry James, Jr..... 5, 133
THE GALAXY MISCELLANY..... 631, 762
Native Wines and Native Game, by Pierre Blot; My Late Senatorial Secretaryship, by Mark Twain; The O. P. Riots of 1809, by A. Bromley; An Eccentric Artist, by D. E. C.; The Camorra of Naples, by G. W. Appleton; Faux-Pas of the Press, by Jas. Grant Wilson; London Docks, by N. S. Dodge; The Tompkinses, by N. T.; The Forest Fire, by Edward S. Ellis; Byronism, by Walter S. McCann.
Three Branches (The) of the Government.....John Norton Pomeroy..... 482
To a Lady.....T. W. Parsons..... 707
To a Caged Canary.....Lily Nelson..... 732
Tompkinses (The).....N. T..... 770
Trumpet Smith (The).....Charles Dawson Shanly..... 539
Wedding Song (A).....Edgar Fawcett..... 27
William Blake (Swinburne's).....Richard Grant White..... 652
With my Book.....T. W. Parsons..... 21
Woman and the Weed.....Schuyler Brightley..... 438
Words and their Uses.....Richard Grant White..... 240, 334, 491, 599
Woods and Waters.....Edmund Clarence Stedman..... 579
Worthless Laurels.....Kate Putnam Osgood..... 297
Wreck.....Helen Hunt..... 630

READING FOR THE WINTER.

ARRANGEMENTS have been made for Clubbing THE GALAXY with other periodicals, which offer decided advantages to those who are now selecting their reading for the Winter. By these arrangements, a saving to the subscriber of from twenty per cent. upwards is effected.

Especial attention is invited to the following terms. The subscriptions will be commenced at any time desired.

TERMS OF CLUBBING:

		Regular Price.
The Galaxy and Harper's Bazar sent One Year for	$6 00	—$7 50
The Galaxy and Harper's Weekly " "	6 00	7 50
The Galaxy and Our Young Folks " "	4 50	5 50
The Galaxy and The Riverside Magazine "	4 50	6 00
The Galaxy and The American Agriculturalist	4 00	5 50
The Galaxy and Every Saturday " "	7 00	8 50
The Galaxy and The Round Table " "	8 00	9 50
The Galaxy and The Army and Navy Journal	8 00	9 50

FOR TEN DOLLARS,

THE GALAXY,

HARPER'S BAZAR, (or HARPER'S WEEKLY) and

EVERY SATURDAY

Will be sent together for one year, saving $2 50 to the subscriber. Or to any one remitting $4 50 THE GALAXY will be sent for one year and a copy of Mrs. R. H. Davis' story, "WAITING FOR THE VERDICT," handsomely bound and illustrated.

TERMS OF THE GALAXY.—Single Subscriptions, $3 50 a year. CLUB TERMS—two copies, $6; five copies, $14; ten copies, $25; twenty copies, $50, and one free copy to the person who sends the club. Subscriptions should be addressed to

W. C. & F. P. CHURCH,

No. 39 PARK ROW, NEW YORK.

THE GALAXY.

JANUARY, 1868.

CONTENTS.

I.—THE STORY OF A MASTERPIECE. IN TWO PARTS.—PART I. By Henry James, Jr. 5
(With an illustration by Gaston Fay.)
II.—WITH MY BOOK. By T. W. Parsons 21
III.—AMERICAN AND FOREIGN THEATRES. By Olive Logan 22
IV.—A WEDDING SONG. By Edgar Fawcett 27
V.—MY SPIRITUALISTIC EXPERIENCES. By Richard Frothingham. 28
VI.—THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK 41
VII.—THE SAME CHRISTMAS IN OLD ENGLAND AND NEW. By Edward Everett Hale 47
VIII.—ELISABETTA'S CHRISTMAS. By Harriet Prescott Spofford 60
IX.—BURGOYNE IN A NEW LIGHT. By William L. Stone 78
X.—STEVEN LAWRENCE, YEOMAN. By Mrs. Edwards 86
Chapter XXXII.—WITHIN AND WITHOUT.
XXXIII.—DORA CONQUERS.
XXXIV.—BACCARAT
XXXV.—IN PARIS.
XXXVI.—MADEMOISELLE BARRY.
XI.—APHORISTIC CYNICISM. By Junius Henri Browne 122
XII.—NEBULÆ. By the Editor 124
Containing:
CHRISTMAS.
GEORGE CRUIKSHANK.
SUNDAY LAWS.
"ON THIS CONTINENT."
"LOVE'S LARGESS."
DERIVATION OF SLANG.
PUNNING.

THE GALAXY may be obtained from any newsdealer.

Subscription price, $3 50 a year; invariably in advance. Two copies will be sent for $6; five copies for $14; ten for $25; twenty for $50, and one to the getter-up of the club; each additional copy, $2 50.

Volumes I., II., III. and IV. of THE GALAXY, containing the numbers from one to thirty-two, are now completed and may be obtained from any bookseller or newsdealer, or may be ordered from the Proprietors. Price $3 per volume, bound in cloth. The four bound volumes and the Magazine for one year will be sent for $14.

Subscriptions may commence at any time, but when no time is specified, the numbers will be sent from the beginning of the current volume.

Subscriptions should be addressed to W. C. & F. P. CHURCH, No. 39 Park Row, New York. In remitting, drafts on New York or Post-Office orders, payable to W. C. & F. P. CHURCH, are preferable to bank notes, as they can be renewed if necessary without loss to the sender.

The postage on THE GALAXY is Six Cents a quarter, to be paid in advance at the Post-Office where received.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1868, by W. C. & F. P. CHURCH, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Southern District of New York.

CRITICAL AND SOCIAL ESSAYS.

[From the London Saturday Review.]

A volume of "Critical and Social Essays" reprinted from the New York NATION would do credit to some of the best of our own journals and magazines. They are lively without flippancy, quiet and moderate in tone, and deal with some of the peculiarities and absurdities of Yankee tastes and habits in the best possible spirit; neither defending them nor speaking of them with unworthy self-abasement, but generally endeavoring to trace them to their origin in the social and economical condition of the people. The fondness of Americans for travelling, their alleged habits of extravagance, their distaste for horsemanship and preference for driving, their eccentricities of pronunciation, their partiality for black broadcloth, are one and all treated in a manner suitable to the subject, not making too much of trivial things, but finding in them reasonable trace of some deeper national characteristic.

[From the London Pall Mall Gazette.]

These essays are a reprint from the New York NATION—a newspaper which has done much to show that American journalism may attain a far higher level than that to which we have hitherto been accustomed. It is written by men of ability for a cultivated audience, and is free from those appeals to popular ignorance and prejudice which deface the pages of most of its contemporaries. Political opponents will, of course, be apt to judge hardly of a paper with a decided line of politics; but candid opponents must admit that it defends its principles, erroneous as they may be, with consistency and dignity.

The present publication has, however, little direct reference to political questions. It is an attempt to supply in America social articles of the pattern of which The Saturday Review set the first example. The subjects of some of the essays may be inferred from their titles, e. g., "Critics and Criticism," "Clergymen's Salaries," "Popularizing Science," "The Good Old Times," "Waste," "Dress and its Critics," the "Social Influence of the National Debt," "American Reputations in England," etc., etc. If we were to give a general estimate of their merits, we should say that they are far from equal in polish and brilliancy of expression to the better writing of the paper which it has taken for its model. At the same time they are generally sensible, well expressed, and, in short, such articles as may be read with pleasure and a fair amount of solid profit. . .

The question raised by the volume is, in fact, whether America is at present capable of seriously rivalling the literary products of the Old World. In time they may go entirely ahead of us, and discover parts of literature hitherto unsuspected; but the immediate question is, can they do anything equal to the best English periodical writing? And this question is explicitly discussed in an essay which to Englishmen is, perhaps, the most interesting in the book, entitled "Why have we no Saturday Reviews?" . . . . .

However this may be, the existence of THE NATION itself seems to prove that it is possible for a journal of a really high class to thrive very satisfactorily in New York. The remaining essays in this volume, which we have not space to examine in more detail, show abundant common sense and sound principle expressed in excellent English. If they are not polished quite up to The Saturday Review pitch, they are, nevertheless, very good reading of the kind, and much in advance of anything that we have seen in other American papers. We sincerely wish that THE NATION may go on and prosper, and that its example may result in raising the standard of American journalism.

Price, $1 50.

LEYPOLDT & HOLT, Publishers, New York City.

(OVER)

THE NATION.—"The best American and, of its kind, for Americans, the best existing periodical."—Brooklyn Union.

THE NATION.—"I have never taken a weekly newspaper which, in all its departments, is so satisfactory to me as THE NATION."—Hon. J. D. Cox, Governor of Ohio.

THE NATION.—"An educational journal of the highest order."—American Educational Monthly.

THE NATION.—"I appreciate THE NATION far above any of the issues of the day."—Edward McPherson, Esq., Clerk U. S. House of Representatives.

THE NATION.—"Probably the ablest and most scholarly weekly ever issued in this country."—N. Y. Christian Advocate.

THE NATION.—"I regard THE NATION as one of the very best of our journals—politically it has no superior."—Hon. Lyman Trumbull, U. S. Senator from Illinois.

THE NATION.—"The finest product of American journalism."—New York Methodist.

THE NATION.—"I wish it had a million subscribers."—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

THE NATION.—"It stands in New York without a rival."—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

THE NATION.—"I wish it success from the bottom of my heart."—Rev. H. W. Bellows.

THE NATION.—"As a journal truly national and democratic in the best sense, it has no superior."—Ashtabula Sentinel.

THE NATION.—"I recommend THE NATION to all I meet with, and whenever an opportunity presents itself."—James E. Yeatman, Esq., President W. Sanitary Commission.

THE NATION.—"Decidedly the ablest of our weekly journals."—Chicago Tribune.

THE NATION.—"I like THE NATION thoroughly, not only for its ability, but its tone. I have particularly liked many of its critical articles, which have seemed to me in every way superior and level with the best culture of the time."—Professor James Russell Lowell.

THE NATION.—Published in New York by E. L. GODKIN & CO. Price $5 per annum. Clergymen, $4.

Specimen numbers sent gratis on request. [OVER.

Designed by Gaston Fay.

THE STORY OF A MASTERPIECE.